"If it ain't broke, don't fix it". People used to have common sense. It's a wonderful attribute that is sadly missing in our legislature on the Democratic side. Each of you should take a trip to California and tour a once beautiful state that is now completely ruined by the Democratic agenda. Do you really hate Maine so much that you want to destroy it too? If that's the case, move to California. You will be right at home!
