Maine BEP:

As a Maine resident, I would like to voice my opinion that EV vehicles are not viable for Maine. As we saw in Chicago, people were pushing their vehicles off the road, because they stopped operating in the cold weather. This is only one good reason to vote against EV's in Maine.

It is my hope that you will give all the reasons, such as distance we have to travel per day, cost of insurance, higher repair costs, etc. your utmost consideration.

Respectfully,

Donna L. Ames
