Dear State of Maine Government,

As a citizen of Maine, I do NOT want to be forced to drive an electric car. They are too expensive and do not do well in this climate. And it's absurd to think of charging them. And to replace a battery is incredibly expensive. No one I know could afford it. I'd end up with a motorcycle or a horse and buggy like the Amish. No one I know wants one. Time to stop this foolishness and recognize we don't live in California.

Sincerely,

A Retired Mainer
