to whom is may concern: This is NOT california!!! We don't get sun everyday to power up everything!! Do you remember the ice storm and the days without power?? Families had to get out to get down to get fuel for generators and chain saw gas to cut down the tree limbs broken off... we wouldn't be able to start cars if we were without power for this long..... We are sure you had good intentions but in the mean time will cripple the state of Maine in the process!! Myself and my wife feels the same way!
