This is insanity, first there is no infrastructure to support EV, where are the thousands of charging stations? Where will they be in rural Maine? Second, EV are highly unreliable in cold weather, look what happened in Chicago when the chargers and cars froze and were abandoned. Third, why is Maine hell bent on taking choices away from its citizens? So a few Elites can dictate what is right for us?
Whats next?Meat? Air Conditioners? Gas Stoves?

I drive for a living which requires many times a large pickup to haul my goods, i guess you want to take away my livelihood? I pay a lot of taxes and that revenue will disappear.

This is crazy , people who can afford to leave will move out of Maine, trust me, those that cannot will suffer.

Please come to your senses fast!!!!
