I am commenting in regards to the electric vehicle mandate. I am 100% opposed to Mainers having freedom of choice in regards to buying vehicles. Electric vehicles are overpriced, not dependable especially in cold weather, and use much more energy than a gas-powered vehicle. We live in a rural state and the idea of us being able to drive for long periods of time on an electric charge is unacceptable. We will fight this every step of the way. These are my thoughts.
Respectfully yours, Lynn Costello, Carmel Maine
