This is not a first step towards clean cars rather a punishment to all Mainers who live here. This is not California. Cant we think for ourselves? Any person who has common sense knows going down this path is a disaster. All of the emissions standards over the last 60 years on gas powered vehicles has not made one bit if difference in global warming. So what do you do? Eliminate the gas vehicles? Ridiculous! My GOD where are your brains? For the record I am not in favor of this nonsense.
