Hello,

I am a low income, disabled Mainer who depends on her car for work, community, volunteering in the mental health field, doctors appointments in hard to reach towns, and recreation good for my mental and physical health. I cannot afford an ev...and car companies will not make them cheaper in the future; we all know that. If you adopt this rule it will make it next to impossible for me to afford a regular gas economy car due to demand.

Please consider my story and the cost of electricity, as well as the recent week long power outage, in making your vote.

Sincerely,

Robyn Norris
