This is a very bad idea. We are not California and tired of all the environmentalists dictating what we should or should not do. This shall be voted down and put it on the residence of Maine not you as the government. You work for us not them and I will refuse to but a ev as long as I live. I am tired of the government telling us what we should buy and it is none of your business to tell us. No wonder the government officials get rich but getting kick backs from the people. Stand up and say no.
