This rule is horrific. It will be damaging to the economy, detrimental to the citizens, and dangerous for everyone in the state that doesn't live in a dense urban area. This is an egregious government overreach through a small board of bureaucrats that are going against the will of the vast majority of public comments provided.

Enacting this by any means other than the full legislative process is a farce, and would be the wrong thing to do even then.

Any board member that votes for this rule shows themselves to be a true despot and a traitor to the citizens of Maine that they are supposed to serve.
