To whom it may concern,

Maine does not need this law or any other restrictive rules that take away it's citizens freedom to choose. Allow Maine people to exercise our rights to freely choose which vehicle that we would like to purchase. Restricting our choices only further alienates the citizens of this state and its confidence in it's elected officials.

There is a reason that California has many more people fleeing its state than moving to it. It is proposed restrictive laws like this that cause people to permanently move to states that allow freedom of choice and common sense government. Do not California our Maine, give Maine people our freedom to make our own choices!
