Once again we're being subjected to rules from California. We are not California and we don't have the same population nor the income that their citizens do. Imposing these new standards will greatly harm our lower income population. No one can afford more regulations, restrictions or EV's. In case you haven't noticed, California has had a mass exodus of people leaving, mostly due to the over taxation and regulations imposed on them. Mainer's will suffer greatly if you pass this. I'm beginning to think that most of you don't care about us.
